

ROSSLYN CHAPEL TRUST
Learning and Outreach Co-ordinator

Background information

Rosslyn Chapel is a Category A Listed building, located in Roslin, Midlothian. Founded in 1446, the Chapel has attracted visitors for generations but it came to worldwide prominence following the publication of The Da Vinci Code and release of the subsequent film. Still a working church, the Chapel is open to visitors throughout the year and, in 2018, attracted 178,000 paying visitors. It is designated a 5-star attraction by VisitScotland.

This is a key role, within the small team employed by Rosslyn Chapel Trust. The Trust is a registered charity, SC024324, which was established to manage the conservation and public access for Rosslyn Chapel and, since 2016, also Rosslyn Castle and Collegehill House.

The postholder will be based at Rosslyn Chapel and report to the Director of the Trust. Although the role will be predominantly Monday to Friday, during office hours, some evening and weekend work will be essential. The postholder will be responsible for a delegated budget, covering educational materials and resources and this will be agreed at the time of wider budget planning.
